Contest Details

The Ohio Beef Youth Council Beef Brief Creative Writing Contest challenges youth to explore current issues impacting the beef industry while developing their writing, research, and communication skills.

Participants will select an industry-related topic, research different perspectives, and create an original written piece that shares their knowledge, ideas, and passion for the beef industry.

Participants will:

- Explore important issues facing today's beef industry.
- Strengthen research and creative writing skills.
- Develop critical thinking and communication abilities.
- Learn to support their ideas with factual information.
- Build confidence as advocates for the beef industry.
